DR. PAYSON SMITH TALKED TO UNIVERSALISTS
Commissioner of Education Guest of Men's Club, Which Also Entertained Other Dignitaries.

The March meeting of the Men's Club of the First Universalist Church was one of the most successful of the present season. Dr. Payson Smith, Commissioner of Education, was the speaker, and the club had as guests Elliott R. Barker, member of the School Board; Chester A. Moody, superintendent of schools; Herman Gammons, principal of the High School; Franklin W. Hawkes, principal of Junior High School, West; Paul M. Boynton, Alban Fowler and Arthur E. Robinson of the High School faculty; and A. C. Cobb of the faculty of Junior High School, Center. John O. Matthews, principal of Junior High School, Center, is a member of the club.

In April the club will substitute for its regular meeting the annual Ladies Night. The committee, of which Samuel T. Cushing is chairman, announces that this event will be held on April 25, at Ye Lantern. There will be a banquet, with Rev. Charles F. Patterson, minister of the First Universalist Church, and John Thomas, the well known humorist, as after dinner speakers. The Touraine Orchestra will play during the banquet and also for dancing. For the special entertainment the committee has obtained the Weber Male Quartette. Because of the size of the club attendance is limited to members and one guest.

RECOMMENDATIONS OF FINANCE COMMITTEE

The Advocate Presents a Summary of the Report for the Convenience of the Citizens. A Tax Rate of $31 Expected. Will Cost Nearly $1,500,000 to Run Town.

A tax rate of $31.00 is estimated by the Finance Committee of 21, the report of which committee was issued under date of yesterday. The report is contained in a pamphlet of 32 pages and is comprehensive in its treatment of the problems presented by the various articles in the Town Warrant.

The recommendations incorporated in the Committee's report call for an expenditure of approximately a million and a half dollars. In the fifteen meetings which have been held, many hours of "conscientious examination and intelligent research" have been given to the consideration of the town's business and the committee feels that the report "should have the unanimous support of the town meeting members."

The continued growth of the town, expressed in increasing expenditures, calls for more arduous duties and greater personal sacrifices by town officials. The committee suggests that the matter of reasonable compensation for those who give of their time and talent, should have immediate and favorable consideration.

Another important suggestion is contained in the recommendation that precinct meetings be held previous to town meeting for the discussion of the various articles, thus eliminating much of the unnecessary time taken by past sessions at the town hall.

The committee pays tribute to the memory of Walter A. Robinson, a member and former secretary, who passed away on Jan. 1, after having served on the Finance board since its foundation in 1913.

The report gives the total town debt as $1,053,500. The sinking fund statement shows a balance of $100,291.48. The net increased liabilities are $83,200.00 and the town's borrowing capacity Jan. 1, 1925 was $212,198.38. The estimated valuation is $40,000,000.

The Recommendations

The committee's recommendations upon the articles of the warrant are as follows:

Article 4. The committee recommends an appropriation of $13,000, together with the receipts from the dog tax, for the Robbins Library. This is an increase of $1,500 over last year.

Article 5. Recommended that $392,010 be appropriated for schools, this being an increase over 1924 of $42,070.27.

Article 6. That $700 be appropriated for the proper observance of Memorial Day.

Article 7. That $7,000 be raised for water used for public purposes. This amount is appropriated each year in order to give proper credit to the Water Department and no actual expense is incurred by the town, as the receipts for the Department which are available for transfer, are accordingly increased.

Article 8. The same amount as the last three years, $10,000, is recommended for the construction of permanent sidewalks and curbstones.

Article 9. Recommended that the sum of $112,000, the same amount as in the two previous years, be appropriated for the Highway Division, $106,769.07 to be raised by general tax and the balance transferred from the Street Railway Tax account now in the Treasury.

Article 10. The same amount as the last three years is recommended for the maintenance of the Sewerage System, viz: $7,000.

Article 11. The committee recommends that $60,000 be appropriated for the extension of the Sewer System, $30,443.13 to be raised by taxation, $5,566.87 by transfer from the Sewer Assessment Receipts Account and the remaining $20,000 by the issuing of bonds or notes to be paid in not more than 10 years.

Article 12. Recommended that $55,000 be voted for the extension of Water Mains, $15,298.71 to be raised by general tax, $7,701.29 by transfer from the surplus War Bonus Funds and $30,000 by bond or notes to mature in 15 years.

Article 13. Under this article $20,000 is recommended for the extension of Storm Drains.

Article 14. The sum of $13,500 is recommended for the removal of snow and ice. The amount expended last year was $13,576.01.

Article 15. Recommended that $58,000, an increase of $5,000 over last year, be appropriated for the disposal of ashes, offal and rubbish.

Article 16. An increase of $1,200, occasioned by additional lights on new streets, is asked for street lighting, the total amount called for being $19,700.

Under Articles 17, 18, 19, and 20, the following amounts are recommended: Engineering work, $5,500; Suppression of Gypsy and Brown Tail Moths, $4,500; care of trees and

PLANS FOR A COMMUNITY COUNCIL BEING MADE

To Cooperate With Forum Committee Of Arlington Woman's Club.

Because of the interest that has been expressed by organizations other than the Arlington Woman's Club, under whose auspices the Public Forums have been held the past three seasons, the Forum Committee has decided that some means should be devised by which the services of the Forum could be enlarged. To this end the committee recommended the following to the Board of the Woman's Club which has been adopted:

"That the Forum Committee recommend to the board that steps be taken to put the Public Forum on a permanent basis. To this end the committee recommends that it be authorized to form a Community Council to cooperate with the Forum committee of the Arlington Woman's Club."

It is hoped to bring into the Council, representative men and women of the town who have shown an interest in the Forum, and who will thus aid in making the Forum a permanent institution. Arlington should handsomely support a Forum. It has in past seasons, to the extent that there has been no deficit. However, there is room for more interest to be shown and no doubt by a Council suggested, this will be secured.

19th OF APRIL COMMITTEE MET WEDNESDAY

The 19th of April committee met Wednesday evening in the Hearing room of the Town hall. The chief concern of the committee is the slowness in which the different organizations are responding to the request that the committee be notified as to their participation in the parade, which is hoped will be a big feature of the day's celebration. As yet, only a few have been heard from.

The committee will meet every Wednesday evening until April 19, and it will be glad to have a representative from any of the different organizations appear before the committee.

EVENING SCHOOL CLOSING

The Americanization Classes of the Arlington Evening School will have their closing exercises in the Junior High Centre at 8 o'clock—April 2nd.

The speaker of the evening is Mr. Denis McCarthy, poet and lecturer. There will also be a short musical programme. The public is invited to come.

Millinery and dressmaking are opening on Wednesday, April 1st, at the Junior High School.

TO CANVAS TOWN FOR VISITING NURSING ASS'N

Campaign For 5000 Members By May 1 Given Impetus By Offer Of East Arlington Club.

With the needs of the Arlington Visiting Nursing Association presented to the people through the press and by the spoken word to practically all the community organizations, work was begun this week to enlist the small army of canvassers required to see that there is at least one member of the Association in every family of the town. Encouraged by a good start, the committee is hopeful that the entire town will be organized for this work without delay. Among the first fruits is the offer of the Community Club, East Arlington, through its president, Herbert J. Woodbine, to canvass every family in the section between Wyman street and Alewife Brook, west of Broadway. Horace W. Clark of Rangeley road has informed the committee that he is willing to direct a canvass along Mystic street and Morningside.

During the week the president of the Association, Mrs. Roger W. Homer, has furnished upon request a statement to the Finance Committee of the Town of Arlington. Explaining the need of the Association for an appropriation of $1,000, Mrs. Homer says:

"We have an excellent staff of nurses, but we are not able to pay them the salaries they could command elsewhere. But they like our town and want to stay. The Town hears of the School Nurse and the Board of Health Nurse, because it pays their salaries, but do the Townspeople realize that these nurses do only educational work, not bedside nursing? The actual nursing in the Town is done by our Visiting Nurses, but they also have a large educational program and their social problems are many.

"This Association does a great amount of free work for the poor people of the Town, and on account of this as well as because of our contribution to the general health of the Town we feel justified in calling for some financial help from the Town. We feel that if this work is given up, as it must be if not financially supported, the Town will be called upon to take care of a good many of the cases now looked after and the expense would be far more than the appropriation asked for.

"We maintain two Well Baby Clinics. These Clinics alone give back to the Town in healthy babies a 100% return of the money appropriated for our use. These Clinics are absolutely free to all Townspeople. Two doctors have volunteered their time at these Clinics, which are held every Wednesday and Friday afternoons. The nurses weigh the babies and when a baby is not gaining the nurses do follow up work in the homes."

At the same time Mrs. Homer points out that the three graduate nurses and the two nurses in training will go to any home in Arlington to assist at operations or give bedside care, make pre-natal calls, help in maternity cases and call as often as desired after baby is born. For those who expect to pay for such service a charge of $1 is made for each visit. The Association is for all the people, and all the people are to be asked to support it by annual memberships at $1 each. The intensive campaign to obtain 5,000 more members by May 1 will begin on Monday, April 27.

During the last week the work of the Association has been discussed before the Woman's Club, the Men's Clubs of the Congregational and Universalist Churches, the Court St. Agnes, Catholic Daughters of America, and the Arlington Heights Study Club.

PRESENT QUARTERS OF POST OFFICE TO BE ENLARGED

Plans are being made to enlarge the present quarters of the Arlington office of the Boston Post-Office. The land in the rear of the building on the Court street side belongs to the Arlington Real Estate Trust, the owners of the building. This will be used to extend the post-office quarters, thus providing ample accommodations to meet the growing needs of the office, that for a long time has been handicapped because of its restricted quarters.

GOLDEN WEDDING

This week Dr. George W. Yale leaves town with his family to visit his parents at Charlotte, Vt., who on April 1, will celebrate their golden wedding in the house where the senior Mr. Yale was born. John Lyman Yale and Miss Effie Lewis were married at Williston, Vt., April 1, 1875. Of this union there were born two daughters and one son, and these, with ten grandchildren, will attend the happy meeting on the first day of next month.

The groom at this happy gathering of relatives and friends bears worthily the title of captain, having served as captain of Co. F, 14th Vt. Inf., in the Civil War. We offer warmest congratulations to Comrade Yale and his wife.

TOWN VOTES TO BUY FOSTER LAND FOR SCHOOL PURPOSES

Salary Raise for Board of Assessors Was Refused by Town Meeting, Which Stands Adjourned Until Next Thursday Evening. Other Matters Considered.

The annual town meeting, for the purpose of making the appropriations for the ensuing year, held in Robbins Memorial Town Hall last evening proved to be one of the most harmonious ever held. For two hours and twenty minutes the articles in the warrant were taken up and with few exceptions the recommendations of the Finance committee were upheld. The only long debate came up under Article 34 which asked that land be purchased at what is known as the Kate P. Foster place for school purposes. The Finance committee recommended that no appropriation be made for this purpose. Chairman Hollis M. Gott of this committee stated that in his estimation the school committee had been treated very fairly at all times in relations to the schools. That this year they had been given over $603,000 for school purposes. He felt that there were other sites just as good or maybe better and that the matter should not be acted on at this time until further study be made. Prof. A. H. Rice of the school committee stated that the present Parmenter school is not adequate for the needs of the locality and that there must be more room added. He asked that $10,500 be appropriated for the purchase of this Foster property. The discussion which lasted for forty minutes was participated in by William C. Drouet, Earl A. Ryder, Angus P. MacDonald and Elliott R. Barker on the subject. The $10,500 was voted 118 yes to 11 no.

William C. Drouet presented a resolution after the meeting was opened asking that the new school to be erected on the True lot on Lake street be named the Frank W. Hodgson school in memory of a man who had done much for his native town and for his state. The resolution was adopted by a unanimous vote to be presented to the school committee who have the power to name the schools.

There was not a ripple as to appropriations as recommended by the Finance committee until appropriation for the salary of the assessors came up. Charles H. Gannett of this board presented a substitute to the original motion asking for $2,000 for the salary of the chairman of the board and $1,000 for each of the other two members. This was turned down by a large majority. Mr. Gannett then presented another substitute motion asking that the salary of the chairman be $1,200 and the other members $900 and this again was turned down. The amount recommended by the Finance committee, $1,000 for each member was carried.

By vote of the meeting the town is to have a new police station at some near date. It was voted to take the land by eminent domain or other means on Central street, just back of the block of stores there for this purpose and $10,000 was appropriated for this purpose. A committee will be appointed to obtain plans and estimates on this building and report at the annual meeting in March 1926. Article 27, asking for money to grade the lot around the new fire headquarters, Article 28, relating to the new fire station at the Heights and Article 32, relative to fire proofing the school to be built on the True lot, were laid over until the adjournment of this meeting, on Thursday evening, April 2, at 8 o'clock.

Chairman Gott of the Finance Committee stated that if all the recommendations of the committee were adopted, the tax rate is estimated at $31.00 for the coming year. He cautioned on passing votes that would raise this amount to any extent.

The usual appropriations were made at this time as recommended by the Finance committee.

The Selectmen were authorized to sell the old fire station at the corner of Franklin street and Broadway. The business of the evening took the voters to Article 35. There remain 22 more articles to be disposed of at the adjourned meeting to be held April 2.

THE DIRECT PRIMARY

A bill is now pending in the Legislature which amends the present primary law to the extent of giving to a party convention the right to name all candidates for state offices except governors and lieutenant-governors. Why the old law is not thrown into the scrap heap and a sensible method of naming candidates for all elective offices worked out, is a mystery. There is not a thing that was found fault with as an argument for enacting the present primary law that does not exist in intensified form in the present law. It is a failure because of its own inherent weakness. It essayed to change human nature, to make people take an interest in politics by legal enactment.

Ushered in as a political panacea for the charged evils of caucus and convention, coupled with the prediction that given the opportunity the average voter would seize the privilege granted to name candidates for office, it has proved a delusion and a snare. Instead it has opened the door to those who would play politics for the sake of personal gain, to the confusion of the patriotic and well intentioned and detriment to the best interests of the state.

LAW AND LAW BREAKERS

There is an organized society in this country, having branches in several states, bearing the name of "Association Against the Prohibition Amendment," which it claims is "a pharisaical interference by cranks, hypocrites and meddlers with the rights of the whole people of the United States." It is of mixed membership, both sexes being represented. The claim is that the public welfare is menaced by the amendment and the law enacted to secure enforcement.

Over against the above preposterous claim we place an array of facts published in the Springfield Republican of a recent date, in which it was shown that since the law became operative, the increase in the amount of life insurance in force has been phenomenal. It is estimated that now there are 25,000,000 citizens thus protecting their families and that two-thirds of them are wage-earners. In 1923, the fourth year of prohibition, insurance was written to the amount of $11,710,000,000. Eleven years earlier the total amount in force was only $15,555,901,171. In 1912 savings deposits amounted to $8,425,275,000. They grew slowly during eight years, to $12,450,460,000 in 1920. Then, when money could not so readily be squandered on drink, they jumped in a single year to $15,672,178,000. A similar story is told about the great increase in the number of stockholders in corporations and, as the editorial remarks: "No one can mourn the passing of the corner saloon in the face of such evidence."

There are those of another class that ignore the law and render aid to law breakers. To these we commend a recent utterance of President Coolidge, who said:—

"The Constitution of the United States is the final refuge of every right that is enjoyed by any American citizen. So long as it is observed, those rights will be secure. Whenever it falls into disrespect or disrepute, the end of orderly government, as we have known it for more than 125 years, will be at hand. The Constitution represents a government of law. There is only one other authority and that is a government of force. Americans must make their choice between these two. One signifies justice and liberty; the other, tyranny and oppression. To live under the American Constitution is the greatest political privilege that was ever accorded to the human race."

NEAR EAST RELIEF

Either from personal appeals from platforms or through articles printed in newspapers (we have aided when possible) our readers are more or less familiar with conditions in the Near East. This week we received a document from headquarters, harking back to the days when the orpharages resembled just a huge collection of hospitals, when everybody, trained or untrained, turned to nursing 20,000 children, all of whom had something the matter with them.

This report then goes on to tell how American physicians and professional nurses made heroic records battling malnutrition, trachoma, favus and other diseases, with such signal success that today one general hospital of 550 beds and an ambulatory service suffices. Scabies has practically disappeared; the favus cases are below 400; the continuing trachoma treatments steadily decline.

While this report contains so much that is gratifying it by no means indicates that the demand for help is less urgent. The work must go on for in these children lie possibilities of good citizenship and humanity that will counteract the bitterness and misery that have heretofore prevailed.

Pertinent Opinions

SUBSIDIZING THE DOCTOR

The bill recently reported by the Senate Committee on Public Health to subsidize physicians to the extent of $500 in towns of less than 3000 inhabitants, furnishes another evidence of the tendency of our legislators toward misdirected zeal.

In Massachusetts are many towns of far less than 3,000 inhabitants where there are from two to four resident doctors. Even then, a fair proportion of family heads call in physicians from adjoining larger towns when the services of a medical man is desired. To cite a concrete case: In one small place of 1,500 people, there are two resident physicians, the abilities of whom are so far questioned by a number of its citizens that at the present time four outside doctors are making regular calls there.

Would $500 a year be a sufficient attraction to bring the better qualified physician to the smaller communities? We do not believe so. Only the man who could expect but limited success in larger places or the man just out of college, would accept such a call, for the pecuniary reason alone, entailing, as do the provisions of the bill, the added labor incident to the duties of school physician, agent of the overseers of the poor and health inspector, each of these duties so much lessening his regular income.

That there is a scarcity of doctors in New England we will admit, not having statistics at hand to prove the contrary. We are aware, however, that there is a regrettable lack of competent physicians in small towns, and we also believe that we can state without fear of contradiction, that, except in the case of a member of the profession philanthropically inclined, the competent men will still seek the fields of larger endeavor.

And then again, why subsidize the doctor in preference to the tinsmith, the grocer, the butcher, the minister, the lawyer or the town newspaper? In a great many towns the present need of, or improvement in, any of the latter, is much more pronounced. The poorest physician we know drives his up-to-date car, has a fair share of the good things for himself and his family and is, in most cases, well paid in proportion to the service he renders.

If the State wants to improve conditions, let the attraction be made sufficient to warrant the tempting of none but the best qualified.

The provision of the bill limiting the subsidy to $500 a year, seems to us to be either a sublimely ridiculous assumption upon the part of the proponents of the proposed enactment, or an admission that medical profession is in a bad way.

CONSIDER THE SCHOOLS

Editor of the Advocate:—

I understand that the town of Arlington is to build a new school building this spring.

Many of our public buildings present an extremely creditable appearance. Notable are the town hall, admirable except in a few details; the Robbins Memorial Library, a gem of architecture; the dignified exterior of the Unitarian church; the harmonious and restful auditorium of the Congregational church; the graceful spire of the Universalist church; the stately Gothic tower of the First Baptist church and other buildings which I will not take the space to mention. But can the same be said of our schools? Our only school building which can claim any pronounced architectural merit is the Junior High school, which I understand was designed by the late Stanford White. However superannated this building may be in its interior arrangements, its exterior has an air of distinction which our other and especially our more recent schools sadly lack.

We have just expended a large sum of money in building an elaborate new fire station which is a purely utilitarian affair. Would it not have been wiser and in better taste (unless we can afford to do both), to expend that money in having beautiful schools, which are seats of education and culture? Can we expect our young people to grow up with much appreciation or love for beautiful things when they spend their days in buildings that resemble magnified soap-boxes outside and exhibit the bareness of jails within?

Anyone interested in this subject will find an inspiring article concerning it, profusely illustrated, in the February number of the Architectural Record at the Robbins Library.

✠ Lenten Thoughts ✠

"THE SATISFIED LIFE"

Rev. Archiver J. Strait

Minister of Calvary Methodist Church

Our Lenten thought for this week is preeminently for young people. It is suggested by the words of a young man just a little over thirty years of age. They were not glibly spoken in a moment of idle conversation. They came from long and serious consideration of the meaning of his life. He had been asking himself, "what am I here for?" His answer to his own question concerns everyone, especially the young folks. He said, "I am come to let them have life, and to let them have it in abundance."

We say this is a thought preeminently for young folks. We do not mean that in any exclusive sense. There is a kinship of old age and youth, if each will recognize it. We simply mean that this conclusion of Jesus about the meaning of his life is of supreme importance to young persons because they are the long end of this experience we call life.

These words of Jesus should cause a reversal of view point for many people. Somehow we get the idea that the religion of Jesus is primarily associated with the thought of death. Like many a New England church, surrounded by a grave-yard, we have conceived of the religion of Jesus as rooted in the thought of the grave and the life beyond. But there are other churches, located in the busy town, on the busy street, where men go to and fro about their tasks. The religion of Jesus is like that. It would be planted down into the very midst of a busy life and a busy world. If we hear Jesus aright we shall catch in his words some such note as this: "Death! Why, I am come that they may have life, joyful, happy, satisfied, exuberant life. Life, yes, life brimful, packed full, and running over."

There is an old song we used to sing which went like this: "I shall be satisfied, I shall be satisfied, when I see Him face to face." We do not question the right of the author of these words to write them or of many another to sing them in all sincerity. But we must remember that the ability of anyone to sing such words in sincerity comes at the end of a process and not at the beginning. No person can be satisfied in some future state in seeing Jesus face to face, unless before that he has seen something of Jesus in his life, and going out of his life in wholesome influence upon the lives of others.

This sense of satisfaction with life is what we all demand. It is what the religion of Jesus aims to give. But Jesus was ever making a distinction between existence and life. The first is the physical, the body, its processes and sensations. Life, to Him, was something vastly more. He was sure that men cannot live by bread alone. Not only his high courage but his high vision of the meaning of life led him to warn us, "Be not afraid of them which kill the body and after that have no more that they can do." Because of this high vision He could advise people not to be over anxious about their food and clothing. "Life is more than meat, and the body more than raiment."

Jesus made this distinction because he saw that existence is the raw material and life is the product we make out of it. We make recognition of this often in common speech. When we are having an experience which we think worth while we say, "This is the life." Often in speaking of another we say, "He lived a great life." By our common speech we give recognition to the fact that the best life, the satisfactory life, is more than meat, more than raiment. It is a product which we produce out of the materials in hand.

Jesus is the author of the satisfied life because in Him we see humanity at its best. He reveals to us what we are and may be, not in rhetoric or argument, but by the concrete example of real life lived at the best. Jesus solves for us one of the great problems of life,—the problem of combining self-preservation with self-sacrifice. He not only taught that "He that loathes his life shall find it," but He actually revealed it in human life. He demonstrated beyond contradiction that "he that would be great among you must be the servant of all." He demonstrated that satisfied living and sacrificial living are not mutually exclusive, but that each is the road to the other. Through Him we reach that high point where identification of self with one's neighbor becomes possible, and care for one is included in care for the other.

Jesus gives to life the sense of high purpose. He not only asked himself "what am I here for?" and concludes the He is here to give life, abundant life, but He leads us all who will let Him to ask that same question. He makes it possible for every person to approach a worth-while task with the conviction, "I am in this job, I am selling these goods, I am in this profession that others may have life, and that they may have in abundance." Just as a string of barges at anchor in a harbor are jostled in irregular order by the harbor waves and tide finally straighten out in regular order and sequence when the tug boat hitches on and steams out to the wider sea with its charge, so does high purpose inspired by Jesus take command of a life in which there are cross purposes and jumbled ambitions, and lead it straight out toward the port of a satisfied life.

Two Arlington High School Boys Write Opera and Make Scenery

"Daniel in the Lion's Den" Considered of Much Merit

Corinne Danforth of Arlington, a feature writer for the Boston Globe, had an interesting article in Sunday's edition, telling the story of two Arlington boys who have written an opera and painted the scenery. They are Alan Chakmakjian, who is 14 years old and a Junior High school student and Edgar Hegh, aged 15. Alan composed the opera of which "Daniel and the Lion's Den" is the title, while Edgar wrote the libretto and made the stage sets.

The article goes on to say that the opera may be given in the High school hall May 8, when admission will be by invitation. Also that both boys evidently received their first training in the Music Memory contests that Miss Grace Gordon Pierce, the music director of Arlington schools who came here in 1918, introduced in our schools a few years ago. The article which was accompanied by pictures of the boys, Alan seated at the piano and Edgar with one of his stage sets, is concluded as follows:

"Alan Chakmakjian always won 100 in the music memory contests. He wrote a prize poem in the prize booklet. It is the 'Marche Slave.' School didn't mean much to him until the music memory contests came into the town.

"There was a recent dramatic performance at Junior High West, in which Edgar and Alan did considerable. It was a dramatization of Henry Van Dyke's 'Mansion.' Edgar painted the big back drop scene, made it out of long strips of paper pasted together for a 'canvas.' Edgar was also a principal in the contest. Alan composed the music used in one scene.

"Then the High school gave 'Pinafore.' Alan and Eddy were enthusiastic. Why not write an opera on a big scale just to see if they could do it? But what opera would it be?

"Edgar suggested an opera about Nero. Alan said there was an opera about Nero and they wanted to do something new.

"Then, an opera about Daniel. Alan approved. Edgar brought a Bible to school the next day so that he and Alan could read over a story of Daniel some more during recess. The other boys began joshing about the chums taking up religion now, so the chums had to summon nerve to keep on their path of intentions.

"The special music teachers assisting Miss Pierce are Miss Margaret Hanson at the Junior High West, who has been in direct advisory capacity to Alan; Miss Julia Thresher, teacher at the other Junior High at Arlington Center; Miss May Ward, music teacher in charge of the elementary schools; T. D. Perkins, in charge of instrumental work and particularly the brass instruments, and Miss Grace Posselt, in charge of the string instruments. The manual training teacher, who has directed the making of frames for scenes that Edgar has painted, is Sydney Sandberger."

"Alan is son of Prof. and Mrs. H. H. Chakmakjian of Blossom street, Arlington Heights. His father is an American citizen, who was born in Armenia, and he teaches Greek at Tufts. His uncle is superintendent of schools at Belmont. His mother is an American.

"Alan picked out tunes on the piano when he was a child, but he did not start taking lessons until he was 9 years old. He has been studying piano playing with Adelaide Proctor ever since. In his spare time he likes to improvise. His only harmony study has been an occasional lesson in counterpoint.

"Since boyhood Alan has been composing alone and has been trying to write his own librettos. This year a chum materialized. Edgar Hegh, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Hegh of Harvard street, on an opposite hill in Arlington Heights, appeared as a pupil in the same room at school. They found they had common secret ideals. Edgar doesn't take drawing lessons at school, but he likes to draw. As first aid to doing things together they fitted up a room in Alan's house as a studio. The manual training department is planning to cooperate in making frames for the sets which Eddy has permission to paint in big stage size, as he has done in miniature for his little soap box stage."

FREE MILITARY TRAINING

Many of the soldiers of the late war have a hankering to put on the khaki for a month during the summer, get back into the mess hall where they recall their campaign days with their friends they made during the war, into the saddle with the Cavalry and feel the weight of the rifle again on their shoulders. Maj. Gen. Brewster, commander of this military district, informs us that through a new ruling of the U. S. War Dept., civilians who have had previous military training, possess the required educational equipment and are physically fit in every way, may train themselves for service as officers in the Reserve Corps, by enrolling for the Citizen's Military Training Camp to be held at Camp Devens, at Ayer, this summer. Full details and necessary blank forms can be had by addressing headquarters 1st Corps Area, Boston (9) Mass.

ST. JAMES THEATRE

"Mary's Ankle," a lively comedy by May Tully is the attraction for next week with the Boston Stock Company at the St. James Theatre. Irene Fenwick and Bert Lytell first played the leading roles. Three young men are hard-up. One, a doctor, the other his college chums, finally hit upon the idea of pretending to relatives that the doctor is about to be married and after receiving the customary gifts, pawning them to obtain the necessary cash. A girl's name is invented. Later a girl with a sprained ankle is brought to the physician's office for treatment, bearing the same name as the one invented by the impecunious trio. The doctor's uncle believing his nephew to have been married, invited him and his bride to Bermuda. Complications set in thick and fast and the fun continues until the fall of the curtain. The popular St. James players will be seen in this excellent comedy.

LOST! A BATH TUB

The Police Have Been Asked To Find It.

The police of Arlington have been called on many peculiar cases, some amusing and others serious, but it befell the department on last Saturday to get a brand new kind of complaint, that of the theft of a bath tub from a house.

Think of it, some one going into a house, disconnecting a built-in bath tub and carting it away in the dead of night. The owner of the tub was Frank C. Clark, of 31 Summit avenue, West Somerville, who is erecting a new house at 178 Medford street. The bath tub had been set up and ready for the painters. Some time Friday night the place was entered by someone deft at plumbing and the new tub taken out, together with the fittings.

It may be necessary for the police to look over every house in town to see who has a brand new and recently set up tub of the make stolen, in order to solve the mystery.

GEORGE M. BURKE

Has Been Elected To The Student Senate of Northeastern University School of Engineering.

Announcement recently came from the office of Professor W. J. Ingalls at Northeastern University School of Engineering that George M. Burke of Arlington had been elected to the Student Senate. This election is considered the highest honor that can be awarded to any student by the University and it is interesting to note that in the statement of qualifications which men are to possess in order to be eligible to election to membership in this organization, "Excellence in scholarship" is placed first and following that, "Integrity of character" is considered as being of practically equal importance. The organization is based largely on these two fundamental qualities. But the possession of either or both of these merits is not enough to make a man eligible to election to this honorary society. A live interest and participation in extra-curricular activities is also looked upon as being fundamentally desirable. "Faithful endeavor in the interest of their fellow students" is placed fourth.

Burke is thirty years old, married, and has three children. He was very active during the war and took part in all of the major engagements over seas with the twenty-sixth Division, 103rd Infantry. After twenty months of fighting and illness from gas attack, he returned to Arlington and entered Northeastern University, where he has made a place for himself on the Honor Roll each time that the list has come out. During the summer months he is employed at various kinds of engineering work. Last year during vacation time he was employed as a tool designer by the American Steam Gauge and Valve Company of Boston.

When he was a freshman, Burke began to take a very active part in student affairs. He was appointed asst. manager of the baseball team.

The Federal Board Club was established at this time largely through his efforts. During his sophomore year he maintained his connection with the baseball team, having won his numerals the previous year. He was elected president of the Federal Board Club, assisted in the newspaper publicity for the school and he assisted with the costuming for the original musical comedy "Listening In," presented by the University. Throughout this, his third year, he has been active as Secretary of the Engineering Conference, Chairman of the Nominating Committee, Vice-Chairman of the Division B Student Council, and Chairman of the Junior Prom Committee, in addition to work as manager of the baseball team and newspaper publicity work.

For some time he has had instructional duties in the physics department as a student assistant and the faculty regard his record, as one of interest because of the great quantity and the exceptional quality of the work which he has done.

PASTOR EMERITUS

JOHN G. TAYLOR

And Mrs. Taylor Presented With Gifts From Former Parishioners.

A church supper and business meeting was held at the Park Avenue Congregational church on Thursday evening, March 19th. A menu of braised beef, mashed potato, gravy, coffee, ice cream and cake was served by the Woman's Missionary Guild. Mrs. B. O. Nowell, chairman, Mrs. C. B. Arnold, Mrs. D. L. Solomon and Mrs. A. L. Richardson. Routine business with reports followed. Mr. William Sterner spoke of the committee's plans for raising money for the Building Fund of the church.

The evening was made a special event when a book of appreciation was presented to Rev. John G. Taylor, pastor emeritus of the church. It contained the sermon and prayer that Mr. Taylor delivered from the pulpit of the church on Sunday, November 9th, which marked his eightieth birthday, which occurred on November 12th. Letters of appreciation from the following were also printed in the book:—Rev. Samuel C. Bushnell, Dr. George A. Gordon, Prof. Samuel V. Cole of Wheaton College, Prof. Daniel Evans of Harvard, Rev. William H. Spence of Salem, Rev. David Crockett, Nixon Waterman, Rev. Harold L. Stratton, pastor of the Park Avenue Congregational church, Clarence T. Parsons and Joseph C. Holmes, representing the church, also a brief history of Mr. Taylor's life and the copy of the account of his observance which appeared in the Advocate, November 14th. An especially beautiful leather bound copy is to be a later gift to Mr. Taylor. The presentation was made by the pastor, Rev. Harold L. Stratton.

At this time the Women's Missionary Guild presented to the Primary department of the church, a fine enlarged photograph of Mrs. Taylor, who for a long time was superintendent of the department. The picture, which was presented by Mrs. Walter Jones, president of the Guild, will be hung in the department room. Mrs. Jones also presented to Mrs. Taylor and family a smaller copy of the picture, a gift of the members of the Guild. Mrs. Taylor was also presented with a beautiful bouquet of flowers which were given her by Mrs. Jones in behalf of the church.

The committee in charge of preparing the book was Miss Margaret Elder, Mrs. Bert S. Currier, Mr. Edward Nicoll and Mr. J. Howard Hayes.

COMMONWEALTH OF MASSACHUSETTS

Middlesex, ss.

Arlington, March 3, 1925.

I, E. Caroline Pierce, the duly elected and qualified Town Clerk of the Town of Arlington in said County of Middlesex, hereby certify that the following is a true copy of Article 7 of the warrant for the special meeting—January 20, 1925—of said Town in the year nineteen hundred and twenty-five, duly called, convened and held, and that the following is a true copy of the vote duly passed at the adjourned session of said meeting duly held on February 13, 1925, when said Article was before said meeting.

RESOLVED (Unanimously) that the following by-law be adopted:

No person, firm, association or corporation shall erect, display or maintain, within the limits of the town, a billboard, sign or other outdoor advertising device, except those exempted by Section 30 and 32 of Chapter 93 of the General Laws, or by any additions to, or amendments of said sections—

(a) within fifty (50) feet of any public way;

(b) within three hundred (300) feet of any public park, playground or other public grounds, if within view of any portion of the same;

(c) nearer than fifty (50) feet to any other such billboard, sign or other advertising device, unless said billboards, signs or other advertising devices are placed back to back;

(d) On any location at the corner of any public way and within a radius of one hundred and fifty (150) feet from the point where the center lines of such ways intersect;

(e) Nearer than one hundred (100) feet to any public way, if within view of any portion of the same, if such billboard, sign or other advertising device shall exceed a length of eight (8) feet or a height of four (4) feet;

(f) Nearer than three hundred (300) feet to any public way, if within view of any portion of the same, if such billboard, sign or other advertising device shall exceed a length of twenty-five (25) feet or a height of twelve (12) feet.

(g) In any event if such billboard, sign or other advertising device shall exceed a length of fifty (50) feet or a height of twelve (12) feet; except that the Selectmen may permit the erection of billboards, signs or other advertising devices which do not exceed forty (40) feet in length and fifteen (15) feet in height if not nearer than three hundred (300) feet to the boundary line of any public way.

(h) No billboard, sign or other advertising device shall be erected, displayed or maintained in any block in which one-half of the buildings on both sides of the street are used exclusively for residential purposes, except that this provision shall not apply if the written consent of the owners of a majority of the frontage on both sides of the street in such block is first obtained and is filed with the Division of Highways of the Department of Public Works, together with the application for a permit for such billboard, sign or other advertising device.

(i) No billboard, sign or other advertising device shall be erected, displayed or maintained until a Permit therefor has been issued by the Division of Highways of the Department of Public Works pursuant to the following provisions: Upon receipt from said Division of a notice that application for a permit to erect display or maintain a billboard, sign or other advertising device within the limits of the town has been received by it, the Selectmen shall hold a public hearing on said application in the town, notice of which shall be given by posting the same in three or more public places in said town at least one week before the date of such hearing. A written statement as to the results thereof shall be forwarded to the Division, containing, in the event of a denial of such application, the reasons therefor, within thirty days from the date of notice to the town that an application for such a permit had been made.

This By-Law shall not apply to signs or other devices erected and maintained in conformity with law, which advertise or indicate either the person occupying the premises in question or the business transacted thereon, or advertise the property itself or any part thereof as for sale or to let and which contain no other advertising matter; and provided further that this By-Law shall not apply to billboards, signs or other advertising devices legally maintained, at the time of its approval by the Attorney-General, until one year from the first day of July following such approval.

Whoever violates any of the provisions of this By-Law shall be punished by a fine of not more than one hundred (100) dollars, and whoever, after conviction for such violation, unlawfully maintains such billboard, sign or other outdoor advertising device for twenty (20) days thereafter shall be punished by a fine of not more than five hundred (500) dollars.

If any provision of this By-Law is declared unconstitutional or illegal by a final judgment, order or decree of the Supreme Judicial Court of the Commonwealth, the validity of the remaining provisions of this By-Law shall not be affected thereby.

I hereby certify that the foregoing is a true copy of the By-Law passed at the Adjourned Session of the Special Town Meeting held February 13, 1925 and approved by the Attorney-General of the Commonwealth on March 10, 1925.

DOES IT PAY TO OWN A HOME?

That question is revolving in the minds of a great many people and some of them seem to have a hard time finding a satisfactory answer. The facts to compare are as follows:

ON RENT BASIS

1st—Rent per year for house as desirable as is wanted	$.....
2nd—Difficulty in getting repairs and improvements made by landlord. Estimated inconvenience per year	$.....
3rd—Cost per year of frequent move, say once every two years or oftener	$.....
TOTAL	$.....

OWN YOUR HOME BASIS

1st—Taxes per year	$.....
2nd—Interest on investment per year	$.....
3rd—Up-keep costs per year est.	$.....
TOTAL	$.....

If you can't supply the figures yourself, we will be glad to help you with estimates based on our long experience.

With these two sets of figures before you for comparison, we are sure you can easily see where a home of your own is a decided saving financially to say nothing of the facts that when you put your money into a home, you are keeping it for future use and when you put it into rent, you part with it forever.

Let us help you study this question farther. Call and talk it over and get facts at our office.

DENISHAWN DANCERS

April 4th, At Boston Opera House. Ted Shawn, with Ruth St. Denis and the Denishawn Dancers are appearing at the Boston Opera House, Saturday matinee, April 4th, and are presenting a group of five American sketches. Shawn has been very much interested in the folk dances of this country and has hit upon a group of American sketches characteristic of the varied and different states of mind of this great continent. North of Boston in 1850 has been the hit of the season. Danced by four young ladies and gentlemen costumed in the quaint fashion of the period with delightful humor "Gody's Ladies Book" and the "Gentlemen's Magazine of Fashion," seems to have come to life in a truly miraculous manner, creating no end of fun in the old-fashioned square dance of the time.

The local committee is composed of Miss Marion Mead, Mrs. Frederick W. Hill and Mrs. Vernon G. Sloan, who will be pleased to give information about tickets.

A Prayer

O Thou Infinite Spirit, who needest no words for man to hold his converse with Thee, we would enter into Thy presence, we would reverence Thy Power, we would worship Thy wisdom, we would adore Thy justice, we would be gladdened by Thy love, and blessed by our communion with Thee. We live in Thy world, we taste Thy bounty, we breathe Thy air, Thy power sustains us, Thy justice guides, Thy goodness preserves, and Thy love blesses us forever and ever. O Lord, we cannot fail to praise Thee, though we cannot praise Thee as we would. We bow our faces down before Thee with humble hearts, and in Thy presence would warm our spirits for a while, that we may be prepared for the duties of life, to endure its trials, to bear its crosses, and to triumph in its lasting joys.

In times of darkness, when men fail before Thee, in days when men of high degree are a lie, and those of low degree are a vanity, teach us, O Lord, to be true before Thee, not a vanity, but soberness and manliness; and may we keep still our faith shining in the midst of darkness, the beacon light to guide us over stormy seas to a home and haven at last. Father, give us strength for our daily duty, patience for our constant or unaccustomed cross, and in every time of trial give us the hope that sustains, the faith that wins the victory and obtains satisfaction and fullness of joy. Amen.

Growth of Arlington Schools During the Past Ten Years

87 Teachers in 1915, 146 at Present and End Is Not Yet

THE PRESENT SENIOR HIGH SCHOOL

There has recently been printed at the Advocate office, a 1925 School Manual for Arlington. The Advocate has been interested to compare a manual printed during the administration of Supt. John F. Scully for 1915-1916 with that of 1925.

There were then seven school buildings for which eight janitors were hired. Two for the High School. There were four supervisors, Blanche E. Heard for music; Fannie E. Fish, drawing; Helen S. Carleton, writing and Helen R. Bowker, gymnasium. Also four special teachers:—Abbie M. Russell, sewing and millinery; Ethel P. Ober, sewing; Alfred C. Cobb, manual training, he having been in our schools since 1894; and Elizabeth P. Wright, drawing. Dr. Ezekiel Pratt was the medical inspector which position he still holds. The number of teachers in each building follows, including its principal: High school 22; Junior High 11; Russell 9; Crosby 16; Cutter 10; Locke 15; Parmenter 4, making a total of 87.

Today we have in our nine schools one hundred and forty-six teachers; this includes one principal for each school. The manual issued by Supt. Moody tells us that there are 30 teachers including the principal, in our Senior High school; that there are 19 in the Junior Center school; 18 in the Junior High West; 24 in Crosby; 14 in Cutter; 18 in Locke; 6 in Parmenter; 6 in Peirce, and 11 in Russell.

There are seven supervisors: Arthur E. Robinson in Mechanic Arts; Harriett R. Pennell, Household Arts; Grace G. Pierce, music; Mary A. Curtin, special classes; Marion I. Ford, drawing; Ralph C. Henricus, Physical training, and Florence K. Marshall, penmanship. Besides these, there are six special teachers: Dr. William T. McCarty, Katherine E. McCarty and Helen Gallagher, each a physical training teacher for all the boys and the girls; Helen P. Lane, manual training; Mary E. Waide, Music, and Lottie G. Sears, drawing. One school nurse is employed, but only Dr. Pratt has the medical inspection of all the pupils. Arrangements, however, are being made that will give more inspection.

The superintendent now requires not only a secretary, but a secretary's assistant. The former is Mary A. Keefe and the latter Marion Neville.

Instead of seven schools, Arlington now has nine, two having been added since Mr. Scully was superintendent. One, the Junior High West, a really beautiful building largely because of its situation, and the new Peirce elementary school. The town is about to undertake the erection of another elementary school on what is known as the True lot. This will call for more teachers and supervisors. All this work comes under the supervision of our school committee. For the sake of our readers who may not be familiar with the names of the committee and the department they have charge of, we give them as follows:—

Alexander H. Rice, chairman

NINETEENTH OF APRIL

This year a new volume has been added to the large number of historic and other lesser publications in the mere narrative form, that have been issued from time to time through a long series of years by people essaying to give some phase or specially dramatic event of the revolution that brought about permanent severance of the American colonies from Great Britain.

This new volume of almost three hundred pages, is from the pen of Mr. Allen French of Concord, who has previously written and published quite extensively on this theme. In his preface, Mr. French says he approached this new task "with no preconceived theories to sustain and no prejudices to defend," and a careful perusal of the book from our viewpoint, amply justifies his claim to have written impartially. There is scarcely a statement in the volume that is not confirmed by either foot note or quotation, the whole bearing evidence of the painstaking of the true historian.

The narrative starts with the British soldiery from their barracks in Boston, takes them across Charles River basin, follows the midnight march through Menotomy (now Arlington), to Lexington and tells in fuller details than have been heretofore given, what took place on Lexington Green.

Incidental to this are the rides of Revere, Dawes and Prescott and details of the doings of all parties concerned that are helpful to the reader dwelling on this word picture.

The story of the arrival of the British troops at Concord and how the three units were disposed prior to the dramatic event enacted at Victoria C. Dallin, Laura D. Hardy, and George E. Russell, whose terms expire in March, 1926.

Alexander H. Rice, Eugene F. Freeman and Albert H. Morris, whose terms expire in March 1927.

John A. Bishop, Elliott R. Barker and Bradford E. Swift, whose terms expire in March, 1928.

Regular meeting:—Third Tuesday of each month, except July and Aug.

COTTING HIGH
Arlington's First High School

ust. Secretary to School Committee, Chester A. Moody.

The committee is divided into the following sub-committees:—Finance, Mr. Rice, Mr. Bishop and Mr. Barker; Care of buildings and grounds, Mr. Morris, Mr. Russell and Mr. Swift; Health, Mrs. Dallin, Mrs. Hardy and Mr. Swift; Courses of study and text books, Mr. Rice, Mrs. Dallin and Mr. Bishop; Physical Training, Mr. Bishop, Mr. Swift and Mr. Morris; Evening School and Americanization, Mr. Freeman, Mrs. Hardy and Mr. Swift; Fuel, Mr. Barker, Mr. Russell, Mr. Freeman; High School, Mr. Barker, Mr. Bishop, Mrs. Dallin; Junior High School, Centre, Mr. Bishop, Mr. Morris, Mrs. Hardy; Junior High School, West, Mrs. Dallin, Mr. Russell, Mr. Barker; Crosby School, Mr. Morris, Mr. Swift, Mrs. Hardy; Cutter School, Mrs. Hardy, Mr. Rice, Mr. Freeman; Locke School, Mr. Russell, Mrs. Dallin, Mr. Freeman; Parmenter School, Mr. Barker, Mr. Rice, Mrs. Hardy; Peirce School, Mr. Russell, Mrs. Dallin, Mr. Freeman; Russell School, Mr. Russell, Mr. Bishop, Mr. Morris.

Because Cotting High school has long since been removed from the hill on Academy street, where is now being erected the Masonic Temple, we print a picture of the building in connection with this story, also one of our present Senior High school building as a means of showing the growth of our school problem that has made necessary large expenditures of money and the end is not in sight.

Expressed in money, a comparison of the cost of maintenance is particularly interesting at this time. In 1875 the total amount expended on the schools was $22,311.14. Last year the sum of $350,997.58, nearly 15 times as much, was necessary, and this latter figure does not include nearly $150,000 which was used for new buildings, making in all a total of about half a million dollars.

North Bridge, give the reader a clear idea of what took place. The preparation of the commander of the British forces for retreat are equally well outlined; how that retreat grew into a flight as the red coats approached Lexington; how the timely arrival of Lord Percy at Lexington, with field pieces prevented a panic and secured a more or less orderly retreat toward Boston, are all clearly outlined as well as the fighting that took place all along the road until the British forces were safe under protection of the guns of the frigates in Boston harbor.

That the story as told by Mr. French robs the "fighting" both at Lexington and Concord of anything like a battle; that the minutemen gathered were in no sense plumed knights; that glamour time weaves around historic events is largely pushed into the discard by the facts given, in no sense tarnishes the valor of men who "knew their rights and dared maintain." The 19th of April, 1775 marked the dawning of a new era. This is all that matters.

The book is from the publishing house of Little, Brown & Co., of Boston. It is handsomely printed, contains several rare engravings and, as we have already said, is an addition of the highest value to the literature of this opening event in the nation's history.

The truck is owned by Max Berlan, of 2 Mass. avenue, East Lexington. According to witnesses, the little girl ran out from between parked automobiles, and directly in front of the truck. She was knocked down and received cuts about the head. The girl was taken to the Symmes Arlington Hospital and later to her home.

—Mrs. D. Thomas Percy, Mrs. William Marsden and Mrs. Gorham H. Davis, all members of the Clover Lend-a-Hand Club, gave a bridge party Friday afternoon of last week, at the Percy residence, 16 Water street. There were seven tables used in play at the close of which a hand made rose for the adornment of my lady's gown was given the holder of the highest score at each table. Delicious refreshments were served during the social hour that closed the afternoon. This is one of a series of similar parties that are being given by the members of the Clover club as a means of each earning a certain sum to replenish its treasury and is a substitute for the annual sale the club has held each spring. Members as far as possible have solicited the patronage of their special friends in that way avoiding calling on the same group to become patrons.

GEORGE WARNER TAFT

Following a short illness, George Warner Taft, of 169 Brooks avenue, passed away at his home on Thursday, March 19th. He was an inventor and started a factory in Pomfret, Conn., which was moved to Kennett Square, Penn., in 1886, and was president of the American Road Machine Company. The American Champion Road Machine, some parts of which are still used today, was one of his inventions. He also invented machines used in the manufacture of fibre goods, while connected with the Fibre Specialty Company of Kennett Square. Mr. Taft was born in Upton, Mass., August 27th, 1841, the son of Perley and Maria Miller Taft. During the Civil War he served in the Fifty-Second Massachusetts Regiment and was a member of the G. A. FUNERAL OF WILLIAM E. HARDY

The funeral of William E. Hardy, who passed away Wednesday, March 18th, after only a few days' illness, was held Saturday afternoon, March 21st, in the Orthodox Congregational church. The attendance was a splendid tribute to the man who had lived so well, for it not only represented the civic life of the town, but the different organizations in which Mr. Hardy had been identified, besides his neighbors and long time friends, filling nearly the entire seating capacity of the church. Among the number, was a delegation of Boy Scouts, led by Scoutmaster Stephen Richardson.

The ushers were Rodney C. Hardy, of Schnectady, N. Y., a nephew of the deceased; Harold L. Frost, until recently Scout Commissioner of the Boy Scouts of Arlington and closely identified with Mr. Hardy in the work; Edward N. Lacey, one of the deacons of the church, and Loren N. Marsh, a long time neighbor.

Rev. Don Ivan Patch, minister and friend of Mr. Hardy, conducted the services and paid a beautiful tribute to him in his brief remarks, also with selected scripture reading and prayer interspersed with familiar hymns and organ selections played by Walter N. Kilburn. The flowers were in great profusion, filling the entire front of the pulpit platform and choir railing. The burial was in the family lot in Mt. Pleasant cemetery.

PARENT-TEACHERS' MEETING AT UNIVERSALIST CHURCH

On Wednesday evening there was gathered in the vestry of the First Universalist church, a large number of the parents of the Sunday School pupils and their teachers, with the idea of promoting more interest in the work of the school and of becoming better acquainted with each other.

Robert Needham, the superintendent of the school, presided over the formal exercises, while Mrs. S. T. Cushing led the music. The minister, Rev. C. F. Patterson, gave a brief address of welcome. Warren Russell, an eleven year old pupil, read a paper on "What I have learned so far this year," and Miss Myrtle Belyea spoke of what the school had meant to her. Miss Katharine Yerrinton, the director of Religious Education in the school, gave an interesting talk on "What the Church is trying to accomplish."

During the informal social hour that followed, the Entre-Nous class and the Tomodachi class each made up of girls, the former of which Mrs. L. W. Collins is the leader, and the latter, Mrs. S. T. Cushing, acted as hostesses and also served the refreshments of ice cream and cake.

The committee for the evening was Mr. John Matthews, chairman; Mrs. Earl Matthews, Miss Marion Mead and Miss Margaret Yerrinton.

ST. AGNES COURT HOLDS AN "IRISH NIGHT"

The members of St. Agnes Court, Catholic Daughters of America, and a large number of their friends, enjoyed a very interesting program in G. A. R. Hall on Monday evening. It was termed an "Irish night" and the numbers on the program were of that character. The ladies and young misses giving the program were well received and many encores were asked and given. Miss Frances Ahern, regent of the court, presented Mrs. Roger W. Homer, president of the Arlington Visiting Nursing Association, who told about the coming drive, some of the work the association is doing and urged all to do their part in putting the drive over. The program consisted of trios by the McCarthy sisters on the piano, banjo and violin; vocal numbers by Miss J. Marian Monroe, Miss Alice K. White and Miss Frances Ahern; readings by Miss Doris McCarthy, piano selections by Miss Geraldine Smith and exhibition steps of Irish clog, breakdown and hornpipe steps by a group of pupils of Prof. Harrington. Following the program, all adjourned to the lower floor where a collation was served.

A most enjoyable evening was spent by a large number at the First M. E. HISTORICAL SOCIETY TO GIVE A COSTUME BALL

The entertainment committee of the Arlington Historical Society have arranged for a Costume Ball to be held in Robbins Memorial Town Hall, Friday evening, April 17, 1925, the proceeds of which will be applied to the Jason Russell house fund. Treadwell's orchestra will furnish the music. An attractive program has been planned, including, with the popular dances of today, some of the square and round dances of the olden time. It is hoped that even more than did last year will appear in costume. Grand march for those in costume will be at 8.15 o'clock sharp. An entertainment feature, unusual in character and appropriate to the occasion, will be given at 9 o'clock.

All will remember the great success of the costume dance last year. This being the 150th anniversary year of the Battle of Concord and Lexington, it is hoped that this occasion will be the outstanding feature of the commemorative exercises in our town.

Balcony seats $1.00, including refreshments. These tickets do not admit to the floor. Floor tickets, including refreshments, $1.50.

ARLINGTON ROTARY CLUB

A very large number (probably 90%) of the Arlington club will be guests at the annual meeting of the Stoneham Rotary, to be held in that town, on the evening of March 30, a sort of recognition of courtesies received from the Stoneham club.

A letter from Arlington Woman's Club stated that that organization believed the time had arrived for a broadening of the "Forum" managed by that club in recent years, and requesting the appointment of a representative of the Rotary Club for a general committee. President Smith was named for this service.

Harold Cole, chairman of the ways and means committee, reported the net proceeds of the entertainment given March 13, to be $1,230.71. The club will have an evening meeting, April 15, with supper served at 6.30, to which those assisting in the play presented, not members of the Rotary, with escort, are to be invited, the supper to be supplemented with dancing, in token of appreciation of service rendered.

It was Dr. Bruce I. Lawley who was chiefly responsible for the assembling of the advertising program that earned such a splendid sum for the club's recent dramatic performance. Those who have taken the responsibility of getting up such a program, know the great amount of work it entails, and that the doctor, out of his busy life, was willing to sacrifice his time, showed that he at least, had caught the real meaning of Rotary—helpfulness.

Chairman C. H. Stevens announced the arranging of a series of six talks to the boy pupils in the Junior High Schools that is being arranged for.

At the next meeting of the club the directors will report recommendations as to disposal of a portion at least of the charity fund resulting from the show.

PROF. HENRY PENNYPACKER

Speaks At The Arlington Men's Club Ladies' Night.

The annual ladies' night and annual meeting of the Arlington Men's club was held Monday in the vestry of the Orthodox Congregational church with a splendid representation of club members and ladies. A dinner was served at 6.30, during which Mr. Paul R. Bennett contributed tenor solos and Mrs. Helen Barr, soprano numbers, each accompanied at the piano by Mr. Walter N. Kilburn, the latter the organist of the Orthodox Congregational church and the singers members of the church quartette. Mrs. Barr's beautiful voice was much enjoyed by music lovers who appreciated her talent, while Mr. Bennett also gave pleasure.

The president of the club, Mr. Herman Gammons, presided over a brief business session that followed the dinner, during which reports were read. It was voted to appoint a committee of two to confer with the Arlington Board of Trade in regard to the War Memorial, which the board is interested in setting up in Arlington in honor of the Arlington boys who made the supreme sacrifice. Mr. Roger Homer appeared before the club and spoke briefly of the drive soon to be launched the latter part of April or first of May, in the interest of the Arlington District Nursing Association, which will soon be known probably as the Arlington Visiting Nursing Association as a hearing will be held at Room 37 State House, Boston, at 2 P. M., on the 24th of April, in the matter of the incorporation of the Arlington Visiting Nursing Ass'n., Inc.

The list of officers elected at this time were as follows:—President, Herman H. Gammons; vice-president, W. S. Cannell; secretary, Stanley E. Cook; treasurer, Dana Jones. Executive committee, Rev. Don Ivan Patch, Albin C. Cameron and H. G. Bourne.

The general public was invited to hear the speaker of the evening and many availed themselves of the privilege, for it was Prof. Henry Penny-packer, chairman of the committee on admission at Harvard college and now chairman of the athletic committee at Harvard. He was Master in the Boston Latin school from 1891 to 1910, when he was made head master, a position he held until called to Harvard in 1920. Mr. Penny-packer's work has been the preparation of boys for college and so he had much of interest to tell his audience. This he related in a most fascinating manner, keeping his audience in a happy mood. He told of the methods used to get a boy into college in former days and those of to-day, speaking especially of the honor system.

The matter of standards for the college, the standards for the boy, and those of the parents were emphasized. Each must cooperate if the purpose of educating the college student is to be accomplished.

Before the speaker was introduced, the president called upon the company to pause a minute while a tribute to the memory of the late William E. Hardy, a former member of the club, was given. This was feelingly expressed by Rev. Don Ivan Patch, his minister and friend.

LENTEN SUNDAY VESPERS

Opened At Orthodox Congregational Church With a Fine Program.

The first of three Lenten vesper services that will be held in the Orthodox Congregational church for three successive Sunday afternoons at 3.55, was given last Sunday. It was to be regretted that there was not a larger audience present, for the music rendered by the quartette could not fail to give pleasure while the short address by the pastor, Rev. Don Ivan Patch, was helpful in its suggestions for this Lenten season.

The organist, Walter N. Kilburn, gave a short recital. Mrs. Susie D. Carman, who has been the alto, in the quartette, but who is now engaged at one of the churches in Somerville, not only gave a solo but substituted in the quartette, because of the absence of Miss Marion R. Daggett. The quartette sang the well known anthem, "Behold God is my Salvation," by Rogers. This was especially enjoyed. Its second number was "God Shall Wipe Away All Tears," by Field. The duett, which was sung by Mr. Paul R. Bennett, the tenor of the quartette, and Mrs. Carman, was pleasingly rendered, while the tenor solo by Mr. Bennett, displayed his splendid range of voice. The address by Mr. Patch was the first in a series which he has entitled "Three Cries." The one selected for the afternoon was that of "Bread." Bread, as the preacher said, was the one thing needed to sustain the body but the thought Mr. Patch brought out was that we cannot live by bread alone. We must have the bread of life, that nourishes and saves the souls of men.

The second vesper service will take place next Sunday, March 30th, when the minister will discuss the second meditation in the "Three Cries." This is "Wisdom." Mrs. Barr, soprano of the quartette, and the organist will give the following program:—

Organ Recital at 3.45. Walter N. Kilburn, Organist. Organ Prelude, (a). Andante Cantabile, Widor; (b). The Seventh Word from the Cross, Malling; "Where'er you walk" and "How beautiful are the feet," from the Messiah, by Handel; Responsive Reading No. 77, "Hear ye Israel," from "Elijah," by Mendelssohn; Scripture Readings, "All ye People," introduction from "The Seven Last Words of Christ," by Dubois; Pastoral Prayer; Organ Response; Offertory, Andante, by Franck; Hymn No. 410; "Steal Away," by Brown; "Deep River," by H. T. Burleigh; Benediction; Organ Postlude, Fugue, St. Ann's, by Bach.

Of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel E. Kimball Observed With a Shower To Their Grand-daughter.

A happy family party, with over thirty guests attending, marked the celebration of the fifty-seventh wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Edwin Kimball at their home, 5 Newcomb street on Monday afternoon, March 23rd. A pleasant afternoon was spent when a surprise shower was tendered Miss Miriam B. Crosby, grand-daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kimball and daughter of Selectman and Mrs. Nelson B. Four generations of the family were present at the celebration. Besides their daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Kimball have two sons, James Edwin Kimball and Roscoe C.
